What We Need

What makes the difference between what we want and what we need? We often want things that make life a little easier, a little better, a little more comfortable. Often people work hard so they can get what they want. In our country, we have many life improvements invented every year, and we sometimes have a hard time remembering the world without those amenities. Our needs, on the other hand, make life possible. We need water, food, shelter, among other things, and without those needs we could not live.

Spiritually, what do we need? We need God, in whom we live and move and have our being (Acts 17:28). Thus we need to find the way to God. Thomas, one of Jesus' disciples, asked how to get to God, and Jesus responded, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me (John 14:6). In a world of people working to get the things that they want, more people should focus on what they actually need. More people should turn to Jesus Christ who gives us access to the Father. Instead, the world focuses on what it wants, even to the point of inventing new ways—ways that He does not authorize—to worship God. If we love Jesus we will do what He commands us to do. By focusing on what Jesus wants, we will get what we need.
