The Convincing Power of Christ's Resurrection

Conversation occurs when a person becomes convinced in the truth and the transforming power of the gospel. Even Jesus' disciples did not fully understand the significance of Christ as the Messiah and the son of God. His death by the hands of cruel men robbed those disciples of hope (Mark 16:14), even though Jesus had foretold his resurrection (John 2:19-22). Jesus' own brothers did not believe in Him while He ministered (John 7:5).

Then Jesus rose from the dead, and everything changed. Jesus' brothers became strong Christians (Acts 1:14). Two of His brothers, James and Jude, even wrote books of the New Testament. Jesus' apostles went out and preached the gospel with boldness. Where they once had fled in the face of danger (Matthew 26:56), they now spoke fearlessly, even when they faced those who could take their lives (Acts 4:19-20). They changed because they saw the risen Lord, and they dedicated their lives to Him.

Jesus wants us to do the same. He wants us to believe in the resurrection, even though we have not seen it ourselves (John 20:29). Because Jesus rose from the dead, we can have hope that we will rise from the dead as well (1 Corinthians 15:12-22). Everything we do as Christians depends on the fact that Jesus rose, and when we preach the gospel to the world, we should emphasize that Jesus rose from the dead. Belief in Christ's resurrection causes real and true conversion.
