The Mystery Revealed

People love a good mystery. As a child, I used to love to read the Hardy Boys, a series of books about two brothers, Frank and Joe Hardy, who solved crimes by searching for clues and examining evidence. Mysteries make good stories, and God had presented the greatest story ever told in the form of a mystery. The Bible says, "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory" (1 Timothy 3:16).

In Old Testament times, people knew that something would come. The prophets foretold a Messiah (Daniel 9:25-26) and a kingdom that would stand forever (Daniel 2:44). They foretold a blessing given to all families of the earth (Genesis 12:3) and salvation from sins (Joel 2:32). But they did not know how God would accomplish everything that He promised. The prophets—and even the angels—wanted to understand this mystery that God had foretold (1 Peter 1:10-12).

Then it happened: Jesus came to this earth as God in the flesh (John 1:14); He performed miracles which proved that He came from above (Acts 2:22); He died to take away our sins (1 John 3:5); He rose from the dead on the third day (Mark 16:6); and He sits in Heaven on the right hand of God (1 Peter 3:22). What an amazing story, the mystery revealed!
