God Gives Grace to the Humble

God's word instructs us in all areas of morality. It tells us what we should do to please God. It tells us the actions and practices that we should avoid as well. Furthermore, it shows us how to think and feel. Scripture claims that it discerns, or judges, the thoughts and intents of the heart (Hebrews 4:12). Therefore, we cannot simply mind our actions, but we should also control our thoughts as well.

With that in mind, consider what the Bible has to say about pride. "Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall" (Proverbs 16:18). The first of the seven deadly sins (Proverbs 6:16), pride concerns itself with the way we view ourselves. In regard to ourselves, pride forces us to overlook our faults and flaws so that we can publish our own importance. In regard to others, pride forces us to regard them with an air of superiority, looking down on them as inferior in one way or another.

Scripture tells us to avoid these inflated thoughts though: "Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble" (1 Peter 5:5). God values humility, and shows favor to those who venerate His greatness instead of shouting their own. As He says, "Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up" (James 4:10).
