Spiritual Resources

As soldiers of Christ, we fight a spiritual war every day. We do not fight this war against flesh and blood, but against spiritual wickedness in high places (Ephesians 6:12). We do have the ability to resist the devil, and we can even make him flee from us if we do (James 4:7). God gives us resources to use in our fight against evil, so let's take inventory of some of those resources.

First, God equips us with spiritual armor (Ephesians 6:10-18). He gives us things like truth and righteousness (14), readiness (15), faith (16), salvation, and the word of God (17). This equipment allows us to resist temptation, persevere during hard times, and bear fruit for the Father. Whatever the devil throws at us, this armor will help us to withstand it (13).

Second, God gives us each other. Ecclesiastes says "Two are better than one..." (4:9), and, "...if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken" (4:12). God never intended for us to fight our spiritual battles alone. Instead, he wants us to stand side by side and help each other. He tells us to exhort one another (Hebrews 10:25), to edify one another (1 Thessalonians 5:11).

Thirdly, God gives us love. Love brings us together as Christians (John 13:35). Love helps us to forgive each other. Ephesians 4:32 tells us to forgive each other like God (who loves us) forgave us. If we do not have love, then we will not win our spiritual battle. God has equipped us with many things. These that we have mentioned help us emerge victorious.
