Back to School

School time has arrived. That time of year where we start cramming knowledge into our heads. School comes with a lot of challenges, and navigating them can sometimes prove difficult. Whatever our life brings to us, we can know a few things for certain.

First, we can know that God loves us (John 3:16). God will never stop loving us, and He sacrificed His own son so that we could find Heaven. Second, we can know the meaning of success. Successful Christians will please God, not because of the number of tests they pass, or because of the number of friends they have, but because of how faithfully to God they live (Revelation 2:10), how unspotted they keep themselves from the world (James 1:27), and how much of God's light they show to those around them (Matthew 5:16). Sometimes we may forget this.

Sometimes we may go through life without thinking about eternity, and the little things in life can distract us. Those little things do have meaning, and we should always do our best with whatever we undertake, but if we let those little things become everything, we will miss Heaven. God tells us to serve Him steadfastly and to abound in the work of the Lord, because that work will prove effective and secure our place in Heaven (1 Corinthians 15:58). Remember, school prepares us for life, but life prepares us for eternity.
