Bitter Sweet

Mission report from the Sookdeo Family. They began their work in Canaan, West Indies, Tobago in 2017.

August came and with it came many events and mixed emotions. My family visited Trinidad for about 3 weeks. They stayed while I came back to fulfill responsibilities and accommodate guests arriving for the Youth Weekend of Praise. It was a tough time but my family were in safe hands and the brethren here at Canaan ensured that I was taken care of. It was a busy month filled with activities but the result was rewarding. The congregation at Canaan continues to demonstrate growth in its members and the leadership continues to bond together. We have begun carrying communion for the elderly who are shut in and they are loving it! Young men are bringing us short exhortations and their growth is being seen. We have much work yet ahead but we are committed to improving in our relationships and our service to God.

In Him,
Adrian, Emily, Linus, Persis, Ezra, and Atara Sookdeo
