December Newsletter from Tim & Rachel Wilkes with Fishers of Men

Dear Somerville Church of Christ,

The Parkway Village congregation in Memphis, TN has finished the Fishers of Men evangelism training course. We had 18 students complete the course and from the time the assignment was given to set up and conduct home Bible studies until graduation, this class reported on 132 Bible studies with 52 different souls. A good number of these studies were reaching the point of decision making. Please pray for these continued efforts and for open hearts to receive God's saving Truth.

The class in Columbus, GA is now in Week 10 and the India class (online) is in Week 9. So far, these classes have reported on 74 Bible Studies with 35 different souls. May God be glorified through these efforts!

Looking ahead to next year, I am scheduled to be in India in January. Then at the very end of January and first of February, I am scheduled to begin teaching three Fishers of Men classes: one in Kenya (online), one in Columbus, GA (a different congregation from where I am currently teaching), and one in Miami, FL.

Benny Stephens is stepping away from his full-time work with Fishers of Men, effective at the end of this year. He is simply not able to travel and teach the training course anymore. Benny has been working full-time with FOM since 1985. We are so thankful for him and for the great servant of the Lord he has been for so many years, especially through the Fishers of Men ministry. Only the Lord knows how many souls will inhabit heaven because of Benny's labor in the kingdom!

Thank you so very much for being a part of this work with us!

Becausue of Him,
Tim II & Rachel Wilkes
