March 5, 2023

After several weeks without an update it is time once again to highlight one of our very outstanding young Christian members. This week it is our great pleasure to introduce Gillian Choate. Gillian is currently 17 years old and is nearing the end of her education in high school. She will be going into her senior year of homeschooling, which her mother and father have conducted her whole life. For the last 8 years she has attended the Somerville Church of Christ faithfully and is a fundamental member of our youth group. Gillian enjoys several extracurricular activities which include, but are not limited to, soccer, martial arts, cooking and reading.

In fact, something that she said she was very proud of was winning first place in her homeschool soccer division last October. From all of us in the youth group, we can also certify that she is a rocking chef who has shown out on multiple occasions with her delicious cooking skills. Gillian is excelling in high school currently and is on track to graduate with very good grades next school year. She tells me that her favorite subject is English but that she doesn't mind the others (except math because it is annoying). Along with these subjects, she also regularly studies the Bible to grow spiritually alongside her academic knowledge. This fact is very apparent in the way that she conducts herself in Bible class, everyday conversation, and in her plans for the future. Gillian has expressed to me that one day she would like to own her own business and take her family on mission trips abroad to spread the gospel and help those in need on foreign fields.

Personally, I am very proud of Gillian. She is a natural born leader as well as a very devoted Christian. She has a good head on her shoulders, which is in no small part due to her parents' guidance. Also, she takes important matters seriously. This is not to say that she isn't also willing to joke around a little at my expense from time to time. Rather, it is to say that she is an individual who values hard work and moral uprightness, which I know will help her greatly over the course of her life. Gillian hopes to find a husband one day who shares her strong goals and moral fiber, someone with whom she can raise a Godly family. I pray that she stays on the path she is currently on, that she continues to refine her good qualities, and that she achieves heavenly success. Please take a moment out of your day to encourage Gillian and get to know her a little better as an individual, I promise you will not regret your choice.
