Welcome back to our series exploring the lives of our Somerville Youth Group. Today we will be highlighting our one-in-a-million, Kari Summitt. Kari is a friendly 13 years old young lady who is currently finishing her 8th-grade year of middle school. She is homeschooled and is doing very well in her classes both at home and at Fayette Christian Academy. Her favorite subject in school is history and her least favorites are tied between math and reading. Kari is about to start her first year of high school next year and hopes to finish with good grades. Her hobbies outside of school include horseback riding, crocheting, and playing soccer, which she has done since she was 5 years old. In the future, she can see herself enjoying a career in law enforcement as a detective, though she is undecided fully at this point if that's where she'll end up. When asked what she was most proud of, she cited a time recently when she crocheted a blanket for one of her close friends in only 5 days, which is a feat in and of itself. Kari has attended Somerville for about 5 years but came here often before with her grandparents.

We are so proud of Kari and who she is becoming as a young lady. She has a way about her that causes others to gravitate to her circle of influence. From what I have observed in my short time here at Somerville, Kari always invites others to Church events, youth activities, and worship services. She is a natural evangelist at heart and is a very good friend. Though she is still learning much about relationships and friendship, I know that she will cause many souls to one day come to know the Lord because of her natural ability and learned attributes.

A little down the line, Kari has hopes of starting a family of her own. She says she would like to have two or three children one day with a godly husband. In her estimation, this all shouldn't take any longer to happen than by the age of 22. From what I have seen with how she treats the little children, I know she will be a natural mom and an excellent wife to a lucky young man. Kari has a bright future as a Christian ahead of her and if she stays on the path she is currently on I know she'll reach her desired goals. It is an honor to be able to serve with her in the youth group and we are very lucky to have kids as awesome as Kari willing to be a part of things. Please take a moment to lift up this incredible young lady and get to know her personally. I know you will be better off doing so.
