Somerville Church of Christ Welcomes You!

August 6, 2023

Churches of Christ World/Ukraine Missions
July Report

On June 14, 1940, trucks and trains began passing through Lublin, Poland, filled with Jewish prisoners being taken to the concentration camp as Auschwitz. The prisoners came from many areas of Europe, including Ukraine. This practice, sadly, continued until the close of World War II. It took a truly demented mind to utilize a container, something built for the common good, such as clothing or food transport, for such a horrific act.

In July of 2023, trucks with containers still leave and pass through Lublin, Poland, but these are filled with bags, boxes, and buckets full of supplies/blessings that you have donated or helped us purchase to provide hope to men, women, and children in war-ravaged Ukraine. They are living in uncertain times and holding on an hour at a time. Please stay with us as we stay with our brothers, sisters, and children in Ukraine.

A container was scheduled to arrive from Holly Springs at the Lublin warehouse during July, and we will have sent a container full of supplies to help those refugees affected by the flooding by the time you receive this correspondence. This could not happen without your willingness to help. We thank God for each of you daily, and we covet your prayers and continued support.

(Containers arriving from our Holly Springs' warehouse in Lublin, unloading, and then being sent into Ukraine to be distributed to local churches and orphanages who've requested our help)
