

Somerville Church of Christ

Welcomes You!

August 13, 2023

Dear Brethern,

We are so grateful for the generous support you provide for our family as we continue into the second year of study at the Memphis School of Preaching. What a joy it has been to study God's Word while preparing for the work of a minister/evangelist/preacher. We truly would not be able to have this blessed opportunity without you.

By the time the letter reaches you, I will have completed the summer quarter at MSOP. My classmates and I were privileged to study three great topics over the past six weeks! I can't wait to preach and teach what I have learned in our assembly and Bible study periods. Although these classes have flown by, the experiences and lessons which I've learned have greatly impacted and strengthened my spiritual walk in Christ.

Last week, I had the distinct opportunity to attend the POWER lecturship hosted by the Southaven church of Christ. The theme this year was: "Answering the Errors", which provided timely and crucial lessons based on the common errors and false teachings that we in the church are facing today. I am thankful for the sound lessons and diligence each speaker delivered and wrote in the lecturship book.

We are really excited to attend and serve at Polishing the Pulpit in Sevierville, TN this month. The month of August will also mark the beginning of the fall quarter of studies in this wonderful school. I will tell you all about my new classes very soon!

We pray earnestly for your love and labor in the Kingdom of our Lord. You are an immeasurable blessing to us and we are honored to work alongside you in the efforts to serve and please our Heavenly Father.

With Christian Love,
Joe Mallory
