Dear Brethern,

I write to you this month with a full heart of gratitude due to the love and support you continue to provide for us. God has so richly blessed me with this opportunity of studying His Word here at MSOP and without your help, it would not be possible. We are so thankful to work with such a wonderful congregation; our family.

By the time you read this letter, I will have already begun coursework in the second quarter of my second year. My classes on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday are Homiletics (Expository Preaching), New Testament Greek, The Minor Prophets, and The Book of Romans. Tuesdays and Thursdays include classes titled: Christian Evidences and Song of Solomon/Psalms. I look forward to telling you all about these classes.

As I stated last month, I had the wonderful opportunity to experience the annual World Evangelism Seminar and The Spiritual Sword Lectures at the Getwell congregation. Although it saddens me to think that this was Getwell's last year hosting this amazing event, I am thankful that the work will continue in the Chatanooga area. I was also able to go on an evangelistic campaign here with the Forest Hill congregation. Thank you so much for your prayers in these efforts as they were extremely beneficial and encouraging to me. We were able to make several contacts throughout the campaign, praying with several in the community and setting up Bible studies with such precious souls. Please continue to pray for those who are considering the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Thank you so much for your support that grants my family this opportunity to be immersed in the study of God's Word. My family has been richly blessed living here on campus and growing in knowledge and faith. We continue to hold you close in prayer as we serve together in the kingdom of the Father.

With Christian Love,
Joe Mallory
