Churches of Christ World/Ukraine Missions

Grateful!

As I work to keep up with the news around the world, it becomes almost overwhelming. From civil unrest recently in areas of Central America where we've assisted numerous orphanages/churches to the constant barrage of bombings in and around orphanages/churches we support in Ukraine to the senseless attacks and devastation on innocent civilians in Israel, I feel a deep sense of fear, frustration, and hopelessness at times, but then I remember. I remember the awesome works God is doing through so many to draw others to Him. I remember all the amazing and powerful things He's weaved together for His good through this mission. I remember how He's helped us protect children from tragic consequences and allow them to smile and feel safe. I remember how He's allowed us to provide clothing, shoes, water, food, supplies, and His Word to refugee families in desperate need. I remember every one of you who has taken on the role of making Matthew 25:34-40 come to life. And, when I remember those things, I'm no longer overwhelmed or anxious. No, I'm grateful.

This month we were able to send another 40 ft. container full of basic necessities to our warehouses in Lublin, Poland to be distributed into Ukraine. Because of your generosity, we have almost reached our goal of filling a container full of sleeping bags to send to Ukraine for the cold winter months, and based on your outreach and giving, I know we'll be able to meet that goal in a few short weeks. I'm so grateful for what's happened in just a small window of time, and my gratefulness causes me to remember. To remember all the good God has done and that I know He'll continue to do.

We pray you all have a blessed Thanksgiving holiday, and please know during this holiday season how grateful we are for each one of you. God bless!
