PSALM 98:1, KJV

January 14, 2024

Dear Somerville Church of Christ,

The Fishers of Men Evangelism Training Course is going well in Coldwater, MS, my home congregation. It is now week 9 of the 12- week training course. That means we have been reporting on Bible studies for 5 weeks now. In that time, the class has reported on 39 Bible studies with 18 different souls! We have had to adjust our schedule a little bit because of my upcoming trip to India this month, but we are still scheduled to have graduation at the end of January.

We concluded the FOM class in Brookland, AR at the beginning of December, so I have final numbers for the three classes taught through the fall: Miami, FL; Brookland, AR; and Philippines (online). During the training course, these three classes together reported 160 Bible studies with 55 different souls. There were also four baptisms during the course! But this is not just about what happens during the class. We are striving to build a new outlook on life; a lifestyle of evangelism. Although I do not have exact numbers on what happens once the FOM training course concludes, I continue to receive messages about continued Bible studies & Baptisms. In fact, shortly after the Brookland class graduated, I got an exciting phone call about one of the souls being baptized, who had been studying with our FOM students.

In November & Decemeber, I was also able to teach evangelism for the Missions program at Memphis School of Preaching. We did not have time to do the full 12-week training course, but we studied Fishers of Men principles. I appreciate Kevin Rutherford for the invitation to teach these classes!

I am scheduled to leave for a 2-week trip to India this month. We plan to hold the annual youth rally at Skinner's Garden & expect several hundred in attendance. Additionally, I am scheduled to hold classes for preachers & preaching students while at Skinner's Garden. After the events at Skinner's Garden, I plan to go to an area of India I have never been to before: Aurangabad. There. I am scheduled to meet with Indian brethern who took the FOM training course with me over a year ago. I plan to work with them holding meetings and classes for preachers.

I appreciate your prayers. It is a blessing to be able to work for the Lord in these ways. Thank you for being a part of this work!

Because of Him,
Tim II & Rachel Wilkes
