Churches of Christ World/Ukraine Missions Report

Nastia was left at one of our orphanage doors as a young child. No official records: just her, a blanket, and the clothes she had on her back. The name on the slip of paper wrapped in her blanket read Nastia, which in Russian means resurrection (the condition of having been restored to life; a second chance). Since that time, she has thrived at church, in the classes we've offered, and socially. She's always been willing to help with and encourage the younger children. Nastia is now 19 and will graduate from one of our trade schools next month with her license in cosmetology. She has been in the program for the past three years, has already secured employment upon graduation, and she plans on returning to assist with her home orphanage as much as possible after getting settled into the new job. Nastia, along with countless other children who have graduated from our orphanages/trade schools, are success stories, but their success is no accident. Their success rests squarely on the spiritual guidance, training, and protection each of you have helped us to provide over the years with your continued support. Nastia asked us to tell her story and to personally express her gratitude to everyone for ensuring she had that second chance. Thank you!

Another container was loaded on March 7 from our Holly Springs (MS) warehouse and sent to our warehouses in Lublin, Poland. It should arrive early April and distribution to the orphanages and churches will begin a few days later. Thanks to several generous donations this past month, we were able to purchase more Bibles in the Ukrainian language and assist with the initial costs of printing more Ukrainian language Bibles.

We are now preparing for another container scheduled for mid-April and have been able to purchase food, clothing and medical supplies for our orphanages, several churches who requested assistance, and one refugee center. Thank you again! None of this could be done without your prayers and support. Please know that we pray for each of you daily, as well. If you need us for any reason, please don't hesitate to contact us. God bless!
