Letter from Prison Ministry

I really appreciate the Holiday wishes, I hope that you and yours are doing well this holiday Season. I just wanted to thank you and the Church of Christ for the continued studies you've sent, they are really helping me get a better understanding of the true Church, and the correct way to worship. I grew up a baptist, and I was baptized at 9 years old before I ever really understood who Jesus was. I quickly fell off of the christian path as I grew into a teen. I might've went to church 10 times throughout my teenage years, and I really regret falling away from Christ as I did. Once I got locked up on February 1, 2022, I read the bible for the first time in my life. The books of Acts and Romans were the main two books to catch my attention and show me what I'd been doing wrong my whole life. I began a deeper study on the church of Christ and decided to convert. I accepted Christ as my Lord and Savior and was baptized on April 14th of 2022. Throughout my incarceration I've continued my studies with your church, and a few others. I just realized that I'd been doing your studies over a year, and I've never written a letter back, so I decided to give you a little background and thank you for helping me in my walk with Christ.

With Christian love,
Chris Clayton
