The Last Gift

What if you knew that this Holiday season was your last, and it would be the last opportunity for you to give gifts to your loved ones?

What would you give them? Perhaps, you would give them a keepsake, one of your possessions that would remind them of you in the coming years. Maybe, you would write them a letter and tell them how much you love them and wish them all of life's happiness.

Then, you might share some life lessons, a bit of practical wisdom that would make getting through life a little easier or how to save and use their money wisely. All of these would be good gifts to leave your loved ones, but they are not the best gifts.

The best gift you can give to your family, friends, and neighbors this year and all the years to come is the Good News of Jesus Christ! Our Heavenly Father has given us the responsibility of sharing His gift of salvation (Matt. 28:19; Mark 16:15). It is God's free gift of grace (Rom. 5:18; Eph. 2:8), a gift that cannot be earned and is freely available to all who will accept it. The physical gifts we now give will someday be lost and will fade away (Matt. 6:19-20). But the gift of the Gospel of Jesus Christ our Lord is the gift that will last for an eternity (Rom. 6:23). However, we don't have to wait till the end to share this wonderful gift. It can be given any time and at any place there is opportunity. We all want to give the best gifts in our secular gift-giving. But how much more pleasing it is when we share the greatest gift of all time.

Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift (2 Corinthians 9:15)!
